

Classy Racing on Potomac Speedway—Football, Bowling, Other Sports

TY COBB SENDS STREET REAL SURPRISE PACKAGE

Nationals' Catcher Presented with Slugger's Bat and Uniform as Mementos of 1910 Season.

Other Sporting Gossip.

Catcher Gabby Street, of the Nationals, returned yesterday from a long hunting trip, and shortly after his arrival at his home, in Williamsport, Pa., found a queer looking express package, delivered last week.

When the bundle was opened a Louisville slugger bat dropped to the floor, followed by an old battle-scarred Detroit baseball uniform.

Street thought somebody was playing a joke on him, and was at first inclined to be hot under the collar, but a careful search through the uniform produced a neatly written note, pinned to the back pocket of the baseball pants, and signed by Ty Cobb.

Street read the note, and his face became wreathed in smiles. It seems that Cobb, in token of their long friendship, presented Gabby with his pet bat—the stick he pounded out so many singles and doubles with last season—together with his Detroit uniform, stained with the team's eight different diamonds.

Street and Cobb have been fast friends for ten years. Street claims the worst spiking he ever got was at the hands of Cobb, and that the famous ball player would rather have sacrificed the game than to have had it occur.

Gabby will keep the uniform and bat as mementos of the 1910 season, and many of his Williamsport friends have been invited around to see the implements of baseball war.

Of course Jack Flynn would like to play with the Washington baseball club. Why not?

If the Nationals are looking for another outfielder, how about Johnny Beall, last season with Denver, and one of the leading sluggers of the Western Association? The Chicago White Sox have no strings attached to Beall, and the Denver officials probably would be more than glad to talk business.

The Augusta (Ga.) Herald prints the following interesting story:

"Money received in the present world series between the Cubs and the Athletics will go to pay for a portion of the college education of one of the boys gathered under the Mack banner. This youngster has been less than a year in professional baseball; has played less than that long with the Athletics, but shares as much as Combs, Bender, Thomas, or Davis in the division of the world's series money."

"The player is Claude Derrick, one of the substitute infielders of the team."

"Perhaps, owing to the soft, Southern modulated voice of this big raw-boned son of the South, it will be better to let him tell the story of what he will do with his receipts from the series. He says:

"What'll I do with the money I get in the world's series? I got a place for it, and a good one. You see it is like this: When I went through college it was the Georgia Tech. I went through on my toes—my own toes. Naturally, I contracted a few bills, money borrowed to continue in school."

"Now, let me tell you, sir, that if I can look upon receipts for all that borrowed money after the series, and I think I will, I'll be the happiest man in the world."

Famous double plays—Roosevelt to Stinson to Oblivion.

Ed Baug, of the Cleveland Press, says: "The manager who has control of his players, invites their confidence, insists on discipline, and who finds sufficient time to 'chum' with them is the most successful in baseball. Connie Mack,

the manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, is a case in point."

Ed Baug, of the Cleveland Press, says: "The manager who has control of his players, invites their confidence, insists on discipline, and who finds sufficient time to 'chum' with them is the most successful in baseball. Connie Mack,

the manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, is a case in point."

Ed Baug, of the Cleveland Press, says: "The manager who has control of his players, invites their confidence, insists on discipline, and who finds sufficient time to 'chum' with them is the most successful in baseball. Connie Mack,

the manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, is a case in point."

Ed Baug, of the Cleveland Press, says: "The manager who has control of his players, invites their confidence, insists on discipline, and who finds sufficient time to 'chum' with them is the most successful in baseball. Connie Mack,

the manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, is a case in point."

Ed Baug, of the Cleveland Press, says: "The manager who has control of his players, invites their confidence, insists on discipline, and who finds sufficient time to 'chum' with them is the most successful in baseball. Connie Mack,

the manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, is a case in point."

Ed Baug, of the Cleveland Press, says: "The manager who has control of his players, invites their confidence, insists on discipline, and who finds sufficient time to 'chum' with them is the most successful in baseball. Connie Mack,

the manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, is a case in point."

Ed Baug, of the Cleveland Press, says: "The manager who has control of his players, invites their confidence, insists on discipline, and who finds sufficient time to 'chum' with them is the most successful in baseball. Connie Mack,

the manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, is a case in point."

Ed Baug, of the Cleveland Press, says: "The manager who has control of his players, invites their confidence, insists on discipline, and who finds sufficient time to 'chum' with them is the most successful in baseball. Connie Mack,

the manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, is a case in point."

Ed Baug, of the Cleveland Press, says: "The manager who has control of his players, invites their confidence, insists on discipline, and who finds sufficient time to 'chum' with them is the most successful in baseball. Connie Mack,

the manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, is a case in point."

Ed Baug, of the Cleveland Press, says: "The manager who has control of his players, invites their confidence, insists on discipline, and who finds sufficient time to 'chum' with them is the most successful in baseball. Connie Mack,

the manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, is a case in point."

Ed Baug, of the Cleveland Press, says: "The manager who has control of his players, invites their confidence, insists on discipline, and who finds sufficient time to 'chum' with them is the most successful in baseball. Connie Mack,

the manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, is a case in point."

Ed Baug, of the Cleveland Press, says: "The manager who has control of his players, invites their confidence, insists on discipline, and who finds sufficient time to 'chum' with them is the most successful in baseball. Connie Mack,

the manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, is a case in point."

INTER-CITY WHIST.

Baltimore and Washington Teams Play on December 10.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 9.—The Baltimore Whist Club is preparing for the match between its team and the Washington club on December 10. The bridge contests of the club are well attended, eight tables being in play at the last meeting. Top score, north and south, was won by Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Penrose, and east and west by Tom Johnson and Miss Cora Thomas.

The contest at the Friday evening game continues to be very exciting. E. A. Buracker and T. Johnson, who were in the lead since the beginning of the season, have been passed by J. S. Jones and Clinton Brown.

GEORGETOWN TEAM ROUNDING TO FORM

One Thousand Extra Seats for Virginia Game.

While the Georgetown Preps and Episcopal High were battling on the college gridiron yesterday afternoon, the varsity went over on the embankment field and got in an hour and a half of signal drill and trick formation practice. The strict secrecy which had been maintained on the big field was followed out to the letter, no one but the coaches and the vigilante committee being allowed on the grounds. After the Preps' game the varsity went over on their own gridiron and another hour was spent in individual coaching. Much attention was given by Nelson in quick charging, opening up holes in the line, and blocking ends, and in these respects the line men showed up well.

Coach Cox took charge of the back field men, two sets of backs working, with Sitterling and Costello at quarters. Coaches Gliven and Cummings gave a great deal of attention to punting, Wymard, Porey, and Costello all booting the ball fifty yards consistently.

Although Walsh's lame ankle showed an improvement yesterday, he is still limping badly, and it is almost a certainty that even if he does get into the game he will be unable to last very long, and will find it very difficult to show his usual speed. Dunn, even worse off, and the hopes that were entertained on the day previous of his being able to play Saturday were shattered yesterday afternoon, when the doctors said that he could hardly get into shape for this game. Both were on the field again yesterday, but not in suits.

The scrubs have been given a temporary lay-off, since it was decided Monday not to hold any more scrimmages after the first down around end, but the Alexandria boys held them for down and Heyward punted to Golden, who was downed in his tracks. On the next line-up, Calvin went around end on a trick play for a gain of 30 yards.

The Red and Black team held the Preps' downs on the next series of plays. The Episcopalians made two first downs around ends. But after the Preps had held them for three times they tried a fake kick, and Heyward punted to Golden, who was downed in his tracks. On the next line-up, Calvin went around end on a trick play for a gain of 30 yards.

The Red and Black team held the Preps' downs on the next series of plays. The Episcopalians made two first downs around ends. But after the Preps had held them for three times they tried a fake kick, and Heyward punted to Golden, who was downed in his tracks. On the next line-up, Calvin went around end on a trick play for a gain of 30 yards.

The Red and Black team held the Preps' downs on the next series of plays. The Episcopalians made two first downs around ends. But after the Preps had held them for three times they tried a fake kick, and Heyward punted to Golden, who was downed in his tracks. On the next line-up, Calvin went around end on a trick play for a gain of 30 yards.

The Red and Black team held the Preps' downs on the next series of plays. The Episcopalians made two first downs around ends. But after the Preps had held them for three times they tried a fake kick, and Heyward punted to Golden, who was downed in his tracks. On the next line-up, Calvin went around end on a trick play for a gain of 30 yards.

The Red and Black team held the Preps' downs on the next series of plays. The Episcopalians made two first downs around ends. But after the Preps had held them for three times they tried a fake kick, and Heyward punted to Golden, who was downed in his tracks. On the next line-up, Calvin went around end on a trick play for a gain of 30 yards.

The Red and Black team held the Preps' downs on the next series of plays. The Episcopalians made two first downs around ends. But after the Preps had held them for three times they tried a fake kick, and Heyward punted to Golden, who was downed in his tracks. On the next line-up, Calvin went around end on a trick play for a gain of 30 yards.

The Red and Black team held the Preps' downs on the next series of plays. The Episcopalians made two first downs around ends. But after the Preps had held them for three times they tried a fake kick, and Heyward punted to Golden, who was downed in his tracks. On the next line-up, Calvin went around end on a trick play for a gain of 30 yards.

The Red and Black team held the Preps' downs on the next series of plays. The Episcopalians made two first downs around ends. But after the Preps had held them for three times they tried a fake kick, and Heyward punted to Golden, who was downed in his tracks. On the next line-up, Calvin went around end on a trick play for a gain of 30 yards.

The Red and Black team held the Preps' downs on the next series of plays. The Episcopalians made two first downs around ends. But after the Preps had held them for three times they tried a fake kick, and Heyward punted to Golden, who was downed in his tracks. On the next line-up, Calvin went around end on a trick play for a gain of 30 yards.

The Red and Black team held the Preps' downs on the next series of plays. The Episcopalians made two first downs around ends. But after the Preps had held them for three times they tried a fake kick, and Heyward punted to Golden, who was downed in his tracks. On the next line-up, Calvin went around end on a trick play for a gain of 30 yards.

The Red and Black team held the Preps' downs on the next series of plays. The Episcopalians made two first downs around ends. But after the Preps had held them for three times they tried a fake kick, and Heyward punted to Golden, who was downed in his tracks. On the next line-up, Calvin went around end on a trick play for a gain of 30 yards.

The Red and Black team held the Preps' downs on the next series of plays. The Episcopalians made two first downs around ends. But after the Preps had held them for three times they tried a fake kick, and Heyward punted to Golden, who was downed in his tracks. On the next line-up, Calvin went around end on a trick play for a gain of 30 yards.

The Red and Black team held the Preps' downs on the next series of plays. The Episcopalians made two first downs around ends. But after the Preps had held them for three times they tried a fake kick, and Heyward punted to Golden, who was downed in his tracks. On the next line-up, Calvin went around end on a trick play for a gain of 30 yards.

The Red and Black team held the Preps' downs on the next series of plays. The Episcopalians made two first downs around ends. But after the Preps had held them for three times they tried a fake kick, and Heyward punted to Golden, who was downed in his tracks. On the next line-up, Calvin went around end on a trick play for a gain of 30 yards.

The Red and Black team held the Preps' downs on the next series of plays. The Episcopalians made two first downs around ends. But after the Preps had held them for three times they tried a fake kick, and Heyward punted to Golden, who was downed in his tracks. On the next line-up, Calvin went around end on a trick play for a gain of 30 yards.

The Red and Black team held the Preps' downs on the next series of plays. The Episcopalians made two first downs around ends. But after the Preps had held them for three times they tried a fake kick, and Heyward punted to Golden, who was downed in his tracks. On the next line-up, Calvin went around end on a trick play for a gain of 30 yards.

The Red and Black team held the Preps' downs on the next series of plays. The Episcopalians made two first downs around ends. But after the Preps had held them for three times they tried a fake kick, and Heyward punted to Golden, who was downed in his tracks. On the next line-up, Calvin went around end on a trick play for a gain of 30 yards.

The Red and Black team held the Preps' downs on the next series of plays. The Episcopalians made two first downs around ends. But after the Preps had held them for three times they tried a fake kick, and Heyward punted to Golden, who was downed in his tracks. On the next line-up, Calvin went around end on a trick play for a gain of 30 yards.

The Red and Black team held the Preps' downs on the next series of plays. The Episcopalians made two first downs around ends. But after the Preps had held them for three times they tried a fake kick, and Heyward punted to Golden, who was downed in his tracks. On the next line-up, Calvin went around end on a trick play for a gain of 30 yards.

The Red and Black team held the Preps' downs on the next series of plays. The Episcopalians made two first downs around ends. But after the Preps had held them for three times they tried a fake kick, and Heyward punted to Golden, who was downed in his tracks. On the next line-up, Calvin went around end on a trick play for a gain of 30 yards.

The Red and Black team held the Preps' downs on the next series of plays. The Episcopalians made two first downs around ends. But after the Preps had held them for three times they tried a fake kick, and Heyward punted to Golden, who was downed in his tracks. On the next line-up, Calvin went around end on a trick play for a gain of 30 yards.

The Red and Black team held the Preps' downs on the next series of plays. The Episcopalians made two first downs around ends. But after the Preps had held them for three times they tried a fake kick, and Heyward punted to Golden, who was downed in his tracks. On the next line-up, Calvin went around end on a trick play for a gain of 30 yards.

The Red and Black team held the Preps' downs on the next series of plays. The Episcopalians made two first downs around ends. But after the Preps had held them for three times they tried a fake kick, and Heyward punted to Golden, who was downed in his tracks. On the next line-up, Calvin went around end on a trick play for a gain of 30 yards.

The Red and Black team held the Preps' downs on the next series of plays. The Episcopalians made two first downs around ends. But after the Preps had held them for three times they tried a fake kick, and Heyward punted to Golden, who was downed in his tracks. On the next line-up, Calvin went around end on a trick play for a gain of 30 yards.

The Red and Black team held the Preps' downs on the next series of plays. The Episcopalians made two first downs around ends. But after the Preps had held them for three times they tried a fake kick, and Heyward punted to Golden, who was downed in his tracks. On the next line-up, Calvin went around end on a trick play for a gain of 30 yards.

PREPS IN THE GAME

Episcopal Plays Georgetown to a Standstill.

HEYWARD STAR OF CONTEST

Touchdown Made by Alexandria Boys Not Allowed—Both Teams Use Wind to Good Advantage in Punting—Red and Black Eleven Has Many Chances to Score.

EXCITING EVENT GOES TO ONAGER

Norfolk Racegoers to See Bud Mars Fly.

Norfolk, Nov. 9.—Those who desired to see Stinger and Martin Littleton meet in a race here were accommodated this afternoon, but the result was a surprise, as Onager took them both into camp. Martin Littleton led the field to the far turn, where Onager passed him, but the last-named was not able to get very far away as Littleton clung to him to the very last, so that Onager only won by a half length in a hard drive.

Bud Mars will give several exhibitions on the track here to-morrow in his second plane. He will be seen before the first race, between the third and fourth, and after the closing event. Summary:

FIFTH RACE—Six furlongs. Annie Selles, 4 to 1, won; Patrick, 10 to 1, second; Time, 1:31.25. O. U. Baster, Superior, Cardiff, and Alice Virginia also ran.

THIRD RACE—Five and a half furlongs. Onager, 13 to 1, won; Littleton, 13 to 1, second; Time, 1:26.25. Onager also ran.

THIRD RACE—Five and a half furlongs. Onager, 13 to 1, won; Littleton, 13 to 1, second; Time, 1:26.25. Onager also ran.

THIRD RACE—Five and a half furlongs. Onager, 13 to 1, won; Littleton, 13 to 1, second; Time, 1:26.25. Onager also ran.

THIRD RACE—Five and a half furlongs. Onager, 13 to 1, won; Littleton, 13 to 1, second; Time, 1:26.25. Onager also ran.

THIRD RACE—Five and a half furlongs. Onager, 13 to 1, won; Littleton, 13 to 1, second; Time, 1:26.25. Onager also ran.

THIRD RACE—Five and a half furlongs. Onager, 13 to 1, won; Littleton, 13 to 1, second; Time, 1:26.25. Onager also ran.

THIRD RACE—Five and a half furlongs. Onager, 13 to 1, won; Littleton, 13 to 1, second; Time, 1:26.25. Onager also ran.

THIRD RACE—Five and a half furlongs. Onager, 13 to 1, won; Littleton, 13 to 1, second; Time, 1:26.25. Onager also ran.

THIRD RACE—Five and a half furlongs. Onager, 13 to 1, won; Littleton, 13 to 1, second; Time, 1:26.25. Onager also ran.

THIRD RACE—Five and a half furlongs. Onager, 13 to 1, won; Littleton, 13 to 1, second; Time, 1:26.25. Onager also ran.

THIRD RACE—Five and a half furlongs. Onager, 13 to 1, won; Littleton, 13 to 1, second; Time, 1:26.25. Onager also ran.

THIRD RACE—Five and a half furlongs. Onager, 13 to 1, won; Littleton, 13 to 1, second; Time, 1:26.25. Onager also ran.

THIRD RACE—Five and a half furlongs. Onager, 13 to 1, won; Littleton, 13 to 1, second; Time, 1:26.25. Onager also ran.

THIRD RACE—Five and a half furlongs. Onager, 13 to 1, won; Littleton, 13 to 1, second; Time, 1:26.25. Onager also ran.

THIRD RACE—Five and a half furlongs. Onager, 13 to 1, won; Littleton, 13 to 1, second; Time, 1:26.25. Onager also ran.

THIRD RACE—Five and a half furlongs. Onager, 13 to 1, won; Littleton, 13 to 1, second; Time, 1:26.25. Onager also ran.

THIRD RACE—Five and a half furlongs. Onager, 13 to 1, won; Littleton, 13 to 1, second; Time, 1:26.25. Onager also ran.

THIRD RACE—Five and a half furlongs. Onager, 13 to 1, won; Littleton, 13 to 1, second; Time, 1:26.25. Onager also ran.

THIRD RACE—Five and a half furlongs. Onager, 13 to 1, won; Littleton, 13 to 1, second; Time, 1:26.25. Onager also ran.

THIRD RACE—Five and a half furlongs. Onager, 13 to 1, won; Littleton, 13 to 1, second; Time, 1:26.25. Onager also ran.

SPEEDWAY RACES

DRAW BIG CROWD

Miss Arcola Wins Feature Event of Card.

PONY DASHES ARE CLASSY

Shetlands Attract Considerable Attention in Both Classes—Dr. Chase Cleans Up His Field in the Class A Trot—Foxy Grattan Springs a Big Surprise and Wins.

By L. D. SALE.

More than 1,000 persons from the District of Columbia, Maryland, and Virginia assembled at the Potomac Speedway yesterday afternoon, in which a large number of women and children were in evidence, and saw Peter Loftus' Miss Arcola, 2:35 1/4, trim E. F. Hall's Manilla, 2:37 1/4. In the free-for-all pace; saw old Harry Madden defeat a good and fast field of horses in the Class A pace; saw Dr. Chase put it all over his field in the Class A trot, and also saw what was not on their programmes—Foxy Grattan win over a pretty good field of local trotters.

Although our local horses were beaten in this event, none of them was disgraced, for Foxy was well named and has a wealth of speed on tap.

The story of the afternoon in detail may prove interesting to racegoers. The first race called was between Manilla and Miss Arcola, Red Rock and Maj. Purcell declining the issue. Miss Arcola led Manilla at the wire in the first heat by a sulky length, the last named going to a bad break near the finish. Miss Arcola carried the lead until the wire, where she was beaten by a half length.

In the second heat, Manilla was driven, Peter Loftus, Miss Arcola's driver, was, however, cautioned. In the second heat, the contest was close the entire half mile, the two great mare, Manilla getting the decision by a neck. In the third and final heat Manilla was unsteady near the finish, and Miss Arcola, finished in front by two sulky lengths.

Class A Pace Exciting.

The Class A pace excited much interest on the part of the spectators. The field comprised Bedford Boy, Harry Madden, Robin Hood, Black Patchin, and Fair Nancy. It was a good bunch of pacers, and Robin Hood led it gallantly to the wire in the first heat in fast time. In the second Harry Madden took up the gage of battle and finished up the race in straight heats, but not without a hot contest. Black Patchin made a great showing following his long let-up.

In the Class A trot the contestants were Country Boy, Dr. Chase, Lady Kushan, and Gallant Maid. It was a field of as high a class matinee trotters as can be found in most any city. The wise ones present were of the opinion that the battle for supremacy would be between Gallant Maid and Dr. Chase, and so it proved. The Maid was not as good as she had shown herself to be on previous occasions, and the Doctor proved to be her master.

Before the next matinee takes place, which will be held on the afternoon of November 16, the daughter of Gallant Boy may possibly round to and reverse the verdict of yesterday. Lady Kushan made an excellent showing. In the second heat Country Boy exhibited a surprising turn of speed by driving Chase out in 1:38-1/2.

Borka, Gentle John, Prince George, Hazel Bell, and Foxy Grattan were the candidates that faced the starter in the Class B trot. Grattan gelding proved the best of his field. He was chased out the first heat in 1:39 1/2 by Hazel Belle, the second heat in 1:40 1/2 by Gentle John, and the third heat in 1:41 by the black gelding, who has been in from pasture only two weeks. Berkeley seemed tied up and could not untrack herself. Prince George was unsteady. The first heat was a dead one between Prince George and Berkeley.

The pony races scheduled drew a large number of women and children to the track. The events were divided into two classes—big and little ponies—and all of the fields were large. The first time down in a running match in both classes. In the second attempt the midwinters were a trifle more steady. Miss Olive Brown won the big pony prize with Prince, and Miss Marion Cecilia Goodacre won the little pony prize with Shamrock. The time in the heat was 1:38 1/2. He was chased out the first heat in 1:39 1/2 by Hazel Belle, the second heat in 1:40 1/2 by Gentle John, and the third heat in 1:41 by the black gelding, who has been in from pasture only two weeks. Berkeley seemed tied up and could not untrack herself. Prince George was unsteady. The first heat was a dead one between Prince George and Berkeley.

The judges in the pony class were Miss Mildred R. Hoge, Miss Ruth Curtis, and Mrs. Edward Crane. Miss Curtis acted as timer, and performed her task most excellently.

The judges in the harness events were R. E. Beall, of Berwyn; J. D. Bowling, of Laurel; E. M. Conners, of Harpers Ferry, and Frank Thomas, of Brightwood, D. C.

L. D. Sale acted as announcer, Thomas Baldwin, of Brightwood, acted as marshal, and William Blatcher, of Mount Pleasant, wielded the flag as starter, and did excellent service.

The summaries:

Free-for-all pace; three heats a race: Miss Arcola, blk. m., by Arcola (C. Loftus) 1 1/2; Manilla, b. m., by Austral (G. Hall) 2 1/2; Time, 1:36 1/2, 1:37, 1:37.

Class A pace; three heats a race: Harry Madden, z. g. (C. F. Javis) 2 1/2; Robin Hood, z. g. (C. F. Javis) 2 1/2; Black Patchin, blk. g., by The Patchin Boy (McCarthy) 3 1/2; Bedford Boy, z. g. (Clayton) 4 1/2; Fair Nancy, b. m. (Dane) 5 1/2; Time, 1:37 1/2, 1:38, 1:39.

Class A trot; three heats a race: Dr. Chase, z. g., by Diatete (Goodacre) 1 1/2; Gentle John, b. m., by Gallant Boy (J. Javis) 2 1/2; Robin Hood, z. g. (Clayton) 3 1/2; Country Boy, z. g., by Mars (Daugherty and Conroy) 4 1/2; Lady Kushan, b. m., by Kushan (G. Hall) 5 1/2; Time, 1:39 1/2, 1:40, 1:41.

Class B trot; three heats a race: Foxy Grattan, z. g., by Grattan (H. Conner) 1 1/2; Gentle John, b. m., by Austral (Dunworth) 2 1/2; Hazel Belle, z. m., by Asworthy (G. Hall) 2 1/2; Berkeley, b. m., by Berkeley (M. Morris) 3 1/2; Prince George, b. m., by Mars (Daugherty and Conroy) 4 1/2; Time, 1:39 1/2, 1:40, 1:41.

Berkeley and Prince George ran a dead heat. The second of the series of matinees will be pulled off November 16, the final of the series November 24.

BROWN IS SINGLES CHAMPION.

Freshman Loses to Senior in Georgetown Tennis Matches.

The finals of the singles of the Georgetown tennis tournament, which have been hanging over for the past few days because of the cold weather, were concluded yesterday, when Trumbull, who defeated Bone in the semi-finals, lost to Harry Brown, of the senior class, 6-2, 7-9, 6-3, and 6-2. In the first set the winner displayed lots of speed, and his smasher were well executed and accurate, but in the next round Trumbull seemed to get into the style of his adversary, and after a hard-fought battle won out. The pace was too hard for the freshman, though, and during the next two sets he succumbed to Brown's superior playing. Brown's lobbing was a feature, and he had his adversary on the run continually because of this knack in putting the ball over his head.

This ends the tournament, the doubles of which were won by Bone and Trumbull, and the affair as a whole was the best ever pulled off on the West End courts.

GOSSIP OF THE BOXERS.